Design a cake for Children in Need - Friday 18th November

This years' 'Design a Cake' competition is based on a character or book by Dick King-Smith. Money raised will be split between Children in Need and the school, for the creation of story sacks.

The competition is open to everyone, so Mums and Dads the challenge is on to beat the teachers. All cake entries need to be brought to the school hall on Friday morning. The hall will be open from 8.30am. During the day, all children will have the opportunity to judge the cakes. The top 3 winning cakes will be raffled during the afternoon. All other cakes will be auctioned after school in the school hall.

Raffle tickets will be on sale in the playground on Thursday 17th and Friday 18th before school and children can also buy tickets in school on Friday. Raffle tickets are priced at 50p a strip.

National Fame for Christmas Squares

The winter edition of the national PTA magazine has a feature on our Christmas Squares on page 55. This can be viewed on the website www.pta.org.uk

Congratulations!

Congratulations to all the play leaders and buddies who have successfully completed their training and are ready to make a difference to our playtimes. Look out for them at lunchtimes wearing their caps.

Reading Workshop

It was lovely to see so many of you engaging with your child's learning at our recent reading workshop. We hope you are still managing to find some special time with your child to enjoy reading books and on that note, thank you to everyone who has purchased books at the book fair, which this year has taken a record amount.

Governors Election - Letters for governors election should have been received this week. Please ensure you send in your vote by 14th November 2011.

Mo-Vember

Mr Tolman-May, Mr Boatman, Mr Bennington and Mr Tomlin are taking part in the Mo-Vember challenge, which involves growing a moustache for the month of November. They are raising money for male cancer charities, a sponsor form is in the office.

Children will be invited to take part on Wednesday 30th November, by coming into school with a drawn on/face painted fancy moustache along with a suggested donation of 50p. Face paints will be available in school - more details to follow!
